Germania Billiard Parlor Raided by Police.

SIX WELL-KNOWN SPORTS ARRESTED

Fall Victims to an Inordinate Fascination for the Game of Poker Dice.

The police disturbed a friendly little dice game early yesterday morning and incidentally the peace of mind of a batch of Honolulu's promising young men.
The scene of operations was the Germania billiard parlor on Bethel street near Hotel. For a long time past the police have been apprised of the fact that a big game was nightly in progress and that the click of the bones oftentimes drowned the merry voices of the billiard balls as they conversed together during a game of three-cushion caroms.

Several times have the nets of the law been spread but by some occult means the festive gamblers always got wise and the police arrived on the scene only to find that the birds had flown.
The pitcher goes to the well once too often and a dailier with the ivories sooner or later gets up against a gentleman with a star. Such was the sad experience of the Germania Poker Dice Association.

It had just struck one and already the rumbling of the milk-wagons had commenced to arouse the guardians of the law who preserve order during the stillly watches of the night. The streets of the town were deserted save for the inevitable midnight feline and a couple of individuals who proceeded stealthily from the police station to the Germania billiard hall.
Silently they ascended the stairway and paused outside the door of one of the rooms. Strange sounds greeted their ears, and curious exclamations couched in the shibboleth of the gambler.

"Who's high?" "better ten," "don't forget the kitty," "somebody's shy," "straights don't count," "first flop, horses," was wafted through the keyhole to the couple who had come to do their duty.
Lon Agnew and George Sea entered the room. The party was too surprised to offer any resistance. They felt bad and looked so, for many of those present were estimable young men, whom one would never have suspected of illegally trifling with the fickle goddess.

One of the victims of the raid tried to persuade Agnew to hush the matter up, to which proposition the ex-pugilist replied that the high sheriff paid him, and that he had no other alternative but to do his duty and earn his salary.
Those arrested were Louis Marks, George May, Ned Imhoff, E. Buchanan, C. Dickerson, H. J. Johnson, S. Gumpfer and J. Herman. The two latter were released, as they and their friends protested that they were not in the game. They were in the toilet when arrested.

The men were released on their own recognizances, and the case will come up before Judge Wilcox this morning. And thus it happened that a pair beat a full house.

MR. AMWEG'S RESIGNATION.
He Says His Services to the Rapid Transit Were Ended by Himself.

Honolulu, T. H., August 9, 1901.
Editor Advertiser: In the interest of justice, I would be obliged if you will publish the following:
In your issue of August 1st, I note that Mr. C. G. Ballentyne, manager of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, is reported as having said that my services as chief engineer of that company had been "dispensed with."

I desire to contradict this statement by saying that the assertion with which Mr. Ballentyne is credited as having made is absolutely false in every particular.
My services were not "dispensed with," but I voluntarily resigned my position. My reason for so doing being that the management of the affairs of the Road were so much at variance with my views of good practice that I preferred not to be connected any longer with the enterprise.

I herewith append a letter from the vice president of the company, which verifies my statement relative to my resignation. Yours very respectfully,
F. J. AMWEG.

Honolulu, August 8, 1901.
Mr. F. J. Amweg, Honolulu, H. I.—
Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge your favor of the 3rd inst., asking for a statement as to the manner in which your relations with this company were severed. In reply would say that such relations were terminated by the acceptance of your resignation presented to the board of directors, such resignation being wholly voluntary on your part and for reasons set forth in yours of May 4th, 1901.

Yours very truly,
CHAS. H. ATHERTON,
Vice Pres't Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Co.

Automobiles Leave.
Considerable activity was noticed by passers-by at the Hawaiian Automobile Company's building, King street, yesterday. Twenty-two automobile vehicles had been crated in a partial knock-down condition and were being loaded on heavy drays by Hustace & Co., who took them down to the water front, where they were put aboard the bark Albert, which carried them to Seattle. They go from there via the Canadian Pacific to Woods Motor Vehicle Co., Chicago. Of the improvements to be made on them there the Advertiser of recent date gave a full account.

Drink Good Coffee.
About a year and a half ago I opened a home in Kona, on the Island of Hawaii, for orphans and other needy children. I have now twenty children to feed, clothe and educate. I am dependent largely on the coffee raised at this home for the support of the children. I have on hand the crops for three years past. I have just opened the Kona coffee store on Fort street, near King, telephone Blue 1021. No. 1 Kona coffee, fresh roasted and ground to order, delivered to any part of town or Waikiki. Call at the store or order by phone. Help support a needy child by helping yourself to a delicious coffee. ALICE F. BEARD, Woman's Exchange.

TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient People Must Show Annoyance at Times.
Nothing spoils a good disposition quicker.

Nothing taxes a man's patience like an itchiness of the skin. Itching piles most drive you crazy. All day it makes you miserable. All night it keeps you awake. Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief. Just the same with eczema. Can hardly keep from scratching it. You would do so but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing. People are learning they can be cured.

Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment. Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure eczema or any itchiness of the skin.

Read the testimony of a St. Albans, U. S., citizen.

Mr. DeForrest D. Judd, of Georgia St., says: "You can put down my name as one who is a firm believer in Doan's Ointment in cases of itching hemorrhoids. I have suffered from that for twenty years and during this time I doctored and used nearly all the salves and ointments I ever heard of but could not get any permanent relief. In the winter of 1896 I was so bad that I could hardly do my work, and lost many hours sleep on account of it. It was at this time that I saw Doan's Ointment advertised and got a box. The application relieved me. It never entered my mind that I could get cured entirely, but I did not then know the virtues of Doan's Ointment. It is the best thing I have ever used and I will speak well of Doan's Ointment." Doan's Ointment for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

HARD ON THE SCOTCH WHISKY MEN.

"The distillers of Scotch whiskies have suffered some setbacks in the last twelve months," said an Edinburgh man, now sojourning on this side, the other day. "That comes from the enormous output of the distilleries the two previous years. Most of these distilleries were bought up by capitalists, who thought they would return a large profit, but they went into the business on such a large scale that the market was glutted and prices have gone way down. A very large portion of the Scotch whiskies brought to this country is cheap stuff, and would not be tolerated by a Scotchman who knows the good article."
